CSS Distribution Receives Berry Global's Supplier of the Year Award.

LOUISVILLE, KY – CSS DISTRIBUTION is pleased to share that they have been named 2022 Supplier of the Year in the Packaging Category by Berry Global. Berry's B.E.S.T. (Berry Exceptional Supplier Team) program evaluates and grows their BEST suppliers. The program was built as a means to communicate to their suppliers what is important to Berry Global and evaluate how their suppliers perform over time as they stack up against their competitors. CSS Distribution is a previous winner of the prestigious industry honor.

"We're very excited to be named a Berry Global Supplier of the Year," said CSS Distribution Chief Executive officer Daniel C. Withrow. "As a global force and a Fortune 500 company, they seek out partners and collaborators who can meet and exceed their high standards to help them succeed. We have been fortunate to receive this honor in the past, and are thrilled to have achieved it once again. The entire CSS Distribution team is proud to be recognized as the Packaging category Supplier of the Year for 2022."

ABOUT CSS DISTRIBUTION GROUP

CSS Distribution Group, Inc. (CSS) was founded in June, 2006, as a national distributor of "End of the Line" products, including pallets, miscellaneous packaging and used Gaylords. The company primarily serves Multi Location National Accounts (MLNAs) and excels in creating national account programs to help MLNAs leverage their spend, reduce vendors, consolidate SKU's and improve their company's EBITDA.
